Recordkeeping Requirements

Recordkeeping Requirements for Charitable Contributions

Reporting Requirement Thresholds:

- Cash. Do not combine separate contributions.
- Noncash. Combine claimed deductions of all similar items to determine $501 or greater amount.

Contribution: Less than $250

Cash	One of the following: 1) Bank record with organization's name, date, and amount of contribution. Bank records may include canceled check, bank statement, or credit card statement. 2) Receipt (includes email) showing organization's name, date, and amount of contribution. 3) Payroll deduction record.
Non-cash	All of the following: 1) Receipt from a charitable organization showing the name of the organization, date and location of the contribution, and a reasonably detailed description of property contributed. 2) Documentation of FMV and method used to determine amount claimed, if less than your entire interest, and terms of any condition attached to the contribution.  Note: A receipt is not required where it is impractical to get one, such as leaving property at a charity's unattended drop site. The organization's name, date of contribution, and description of property are still required.

Contribution: $250 to $500

Cash	Same as less than $250, plus:  Written acknowledgement from the charitable organization or payroll deduction record. The acknowledgement must (1) show the date and amount of the contribution, (2) state whether any goods or services other than intangible religious benefits were provided by the charitable organization (including a good faith estimate of the value), and (3) a statement that the only benefit the taxpayer received was an intangible religious benefit, if that was the case.  The taxpayer must receive the acknowledgement by the earlier of the date of filing or due date of the return, including extensions.

Contribution: $250 to $500 (continued)

Non-cash	Documentation as in 2), previous column, for less than $250 plus written acknowledgement from the charitable organization showing (1) the date and location of the contribution, (2) a reasonably detailed description of the contributed property, (3) whether any goods or services other than intangible religious benefits were provided by the charitable organization (including a good faith estimate of the value), and (4) a statement that the only benefit the taxpayer received was an intangible religious benefit, if that is the case.  The written acknowledgement does not need to state fair market value.  The taxpayer must receive the acknowledgement by the earlier of the date of filing or due date of the return, including extensions.
-----------------	--

Contribution: $501 to $5,000

Cash	Same as $250 to $500.
Non-cash	Same as $250 to $500, plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How property was acquired (purchase, gift, inheritance, etc.).</li> <li>• Approximate date property was obtained or produced.</li> <li>• Cost or other basis and basis adjustments.</li> </ul> If information about the date acquired or basis of the property is not available due to reasonable cause, attach an explanation to the return.

Contribution: Over $5,000

Cash	Same as $250 to $500.
Non-cash	Same as $250 to $5,000. A written appraisal is generally required. Certain exceptions exist for written appraisals including securities with readily available market quotations.

A written statement from a charity is required if a donation is more than $75 and is partly a contribution and partly for goods or services. The statement must contain an estimate of the value of goods or services received. Exception: A written statement for goods or services is not required if one of the following is true.

Charitable Contributions Recordkeeping Requirements

Out-of-Pocket and Auto Expenses

If you do volunteer work for charitable organizations you can deduct your out-of-pocket expenses. The expense must be incurred because of the services rendered. The value of your time to render the services is not deductible. Report out-of-pocket expenses as cash contributions.

- Auto expenses. Deductible out-of-pocket expenses include the cost of using your auto in providing services for a charitable organization. Deduct the actual cost of gas and oil or the standard mileage rate. Add parking and tolls to amount claimed for either standard mileage rate or actual expenses.

- Charitable standard mileage rate. The charitable standard mileage rate is 14¢ per mile.
- Travel expenses. The cost of travel, such as air, rail, and bus transportation, as well as meals and lodging, are deductible while away from home doing volunteer work if there is no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in the travel. The deduction will not be denied simply because you enjoy doing the volunteer work. However, if you have only nominal duties for the charity, or if for significant parts of the trip you do not have duties to perform, the travel expenses are not deductible.
- Written Log. A written log must be kept showing the name of the charitable organization, each date the vehicle was used for charity, and the miles driven for the charity (if using the charitable standard mileage rate).
- Conventions. Travel expenses to attend a convention of a qualified organization are deductible only if you are a chosen representative. Expenses to attend a church convention, for example, are not deductible if you attend as a member of the church rather than as a chosen representative.
- Uniforms. The cost and upkeep of uniforms not suitable for everyday use are deductible if required to be worn while performing volunteer work for a charitable organization.
